

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MARYLAND

CARTIER INTERNATIONAL AG,
a Public Limited Company
Hinterbergstrasse 22
6312 Steinhausen, Switzerland

and

CARTIER, a division of RICHEMONT NORTH AMERICA, INC.,
a Delaware Corporation
645 Fifth Avenue
New York, New York 10022

Plaintiffs,

v.

K. PEARL CORP. D/B/A MONICA JEWELERS,
10300 Little Patuxent Pkwy, Ste 1710
Columbia, Maryland 21044

SERVE ON:
Resident Agent:
Monica Khan
10300 Little Patuxent Pkwy, Ste 1710
Columbia, Maryland 21044

Defendant.

Civil Action No. _____

COMPLAINT (JURY TRIAL DEMANDED)

Plaintiffs Cartier International AG and Cartier, a division of Richemont North America, Inc. (together “Cartier” or “Plaintiffs”), for their Complaint against defendant K. Pearl Corp. d/b/a Monica Jewelers (“Defendant”), allege as follows:

SUBSTANCE OF THE ACTION

1. Cartier is one of the world's most renowned jewelry and luxury watch manufacturers. For decades, Cartier jewelry products have been highly regarded throughout the world as finely crafted works of art.

2. All of the claims asserted herein arise out of and are based on Defendant's unlawful promotion, distribution, and sale of jewelry products that are imitations of Cartier's jewelry designs, designs that are protected under the trademark laws. In some cases, Defendant's imitation jewelry is even engraved with the famous CARTIER mark, despite Defendant never having received authorization from Cartier, making such products counterfeits.

3. Plaintiffs bring claims for counterfeiting and trademark and trade dress infringement under Section 32(1) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1); unfair competition under Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a); dilution under Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c); and related claims of trademark infringement, trade dress infringement and unfair competition under Maryland common law. Plaintiffs seek injunctive and monetary relief.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has jurisdiction under Section 39 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1121, and under Sections 1331 and 1338(a) and (b) of the Judicial Code, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1338(a) & (b). Supplemental jurisdiction exists over Plaintiffs' state law claims under Section 1367(a) of the Judicial Code, 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

5. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant does business in Maryland and owns a store in Maryland through which it regularly conducts business.

6. Venue is proper under Section 1391(b) of the Judicial Code, 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), because Defendant resides in this District and because a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims occurred in this District.

THE PARTIES

7. Plaintiff Cartier International AG is a public limited company organized and existing under the laws of Switzerland, having a principal place of business at Hinterbergstrasse 22, 6312 Steinhausen, Switzerland.

8. Plaintiff Cartier, a division of Richemont North America, Inc., is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, having a principal place of business at 645 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10022. Plaintiff Cartier, a division of Richemont North America, Inc., is the exclusive distributor of Cartier brand products in the United States.

9. For the purposes of this Complaint, except where specified, the interests of Plaintiffs Cartier International AG and Cartier, a division of Richemont North America, Inc. herein are as a practical matter identical, and they are herein referred to individually and collectively as “Cartier.”

10. Upon information and belief, Defendant K. Pearl Corp. d/b/a Monica Jewelers is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Maryland, having a principal place of business at 10300 Little Patuxent Pwy, Suite 1710, Columbia, Maryland 21044.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

I. CARTIER’S BUSINESS AND IP RIGHTS

A. The CARTIER Brand and Business

11. Cartier is a world-famous supplier of fine jewelry and luxury watches sold under the CARTIER name and mark.

12. Founded in 1847 by Louis-François Cartier, Cartier has built a reputation for fine craftsmanship in the jewelry field. Through nearly 170 years of use, Cartier has built its CARTIER name and mark to be synonymous with high-quality, well-crafted jewelry. Today, the company offers for sale and sells a wide range of products, including timepieces, fine jewelry, and accessories. Cartier’s commitment to innovation in design and function, as well as the use of only the finest materials, has brought it renown as a leading maker of luxury goods.

13. Among Cartier’s most important assets is the intellectual property associated with its brand. Among other protection, Cartier owns U.S. trademark registrations covering many of its world-famous marks and innovative jewelry designs.

B. The CARTIER Mark

14. Among the trademarks owned and used by Cartier is the world-famous CARTIER trademark (the “CARTIER Mark”), which has been used continuously in the United States in connection with the advertising and sale of fine jewelry and watches since at least as early as 1859.

15. Cartier has invested significant time, money, and effort to advertise and promote the CARTIER Mark and the products sold thereunder, spending millions of dollars annually on such efforts.

16. The combination of the highest quality products and extensive promotional efforts has kept the CARTIER Mark at the apex of the luxury products industry for decades, and has resulted in millions of dollars of sales year after year.

17. As a result, the CARTIER Mark has acquired enormous value and has become extremely well known to the consuming public and trade as identifying and distinguishing the source of Cartier's products exclusively and uniquely. The CARTIER Mark represents enormous goodwill and has become famous throughout the United States.

18. The CARTIER Mark is the subject of numerous federal trademark registration, including, but not limited to, the following:

Mark	Reg. No.	Reg. Date	Registered Goods
CARTIER	411,239	January 9, 1945	Inter alia , bracelets, earrings, finger rings
CARTIER	759,202	October 29, 1963	Inter alia , articles of jewelry for personal wear
Cartier	411,240	January 9, 1945	Articles of jewelry for personal wear, namely, inter alia , bracelets, earrings, finger rings
Cartie	4,178,047	July 24, 2012	Inter alia , jewelry

19. Printouts detailing the registration information for the above marks are attached hereto as Exhibit A. These registrations are all valid, subsisting, and in full force and effect. Moreover, all of the above registrations have become incontestable under Section 15 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1065, and serve as conclusive evidence of the validity of the registered marks, of the registration of the marks, and of Cartier's exclusive right to use the marks in commerce on or in connection with the products for which the marks are registered, as provided by Section 33(b) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1115(b).

C. Cartier's LOVE Collection and Related Intellectual Property Rights

20. One of Cartier's most well-known and sought-after jewelry lines is known as the LOVE collection, which consists of a wide variety of jewelry products, each with the distinctive appearance of a flat metal band in white gold, yellow gold, or pink gold punctuated by simulated screw head designs and/or diamonds (the "LOVE Trade Dress"), as shown below:

21. The first item in the LOVE collection was the LOVE bracelet, designed for Cartier by Aldo Cipullo in 1969.

22. Since its introduction, the LOVE bracelet has adorned the wrists of many famous celebrities, including 1970s couples such as Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton, Nancy and Frank Sinatra, Cary Grant and Dyan Cannon, and Ali McGraw and Steve McQueen. Today, the LOVE bracelet continues to be favored by celebrities such as Kylie Jenner.

23. In addition to the LOVE bracelet, Cartier manufactures, promotes and sells a number of jewelry designs within the LOVE collection and incorporating the LOVE Trade Dress, including, but not limited to, earrings, rings, and necklaces.

24. The LOVE Trade Dress is the subject of various federal trademark registrations owned by Cartier, including the following:

Mark	Reg. No.	Reg. Date	Registered Goods
LOVE BRACELET	1,005,286	February 25, 1975	Jewelry, namely, bracelets

Mark	Reg. No.	Reg. Date	Registered Goods
	1,372,423	November 26, 1985	Bracelets
	3,162,410	October 24, 2006	Jewelry, namely, inter alia , bracelets, rings, earrings
	3,776,794	April 20, 2010	Jewelry, namely, inter alia , rings, bracelets, earrings, made of precious metals

25. Printouts detailing the registration information for the above marks are attached hereto as Exhibit B. These registrations are all valid, subsisting, and in full force and effect. Moreover, all of the above registrations have become incontestable under Section 15 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1065, and serve as conclusive evidence of the validity of the registered marks, of the registration of the marks, and of Cartier's exclusive right to use the marks in commerce on or in connection with the products for which the marks are registered, as provided by Section 33(b) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1115(b). Collectively, the marks shown in Exhibit B are herein referred to as the "LOVE Marks."

26. Cartier has extensively advertised and promoted the products manufactured, sold, and offered for sale under the LOVE Marks. The LOVE Marks immediately indicate Cartier as the exclusive source of products to which they are affixed, and signify goodwill of incalculable value.

27. Cartier's products sold under the LOVE Marks are available throughout the United States, both through Cartier's own boutiques and in additional authorized retail stores. Cartier sells millions of dollars of products under the LOVE Marks each year.

28. The products distributed by Cartier under the LOVE Marks are of the highest quality and are subject to exacting quality control standards. Cartier takes pains to ensure the quality of its products by monitoring their production and distribution. As a result of these efforts, Cartier has developed a reputation for providing the highest-quality products under the LOVE Marks and consumers have come to expect that products bearing the LOVE Marks are of the highest quality and workmanship.

29. As a result of Cartier's significant investment of time, money, and effort promoting the LOVE Marks and its widespread sales, the LOVE Marks have acquired enormous value and have become extremely well known to the consuming public and trade as identifying and distinguishing the source of Cartier's products exclusively and uniquely. As a result, the LOVE Marks have come to represent enormous goodwill.

D. Cartier's Juste un Clou Collection and Related Intellectual Property Rights

30. Another of Cartier's most critically acclaimed lines is its Juste un Clou collection, which today comprises bracelets, rings, necklaces, and earrings featuring a circular design in the shape of a nail (collectively, the "Juste un Clou Works").

31. The first item in the Juste un Clou collection was a bracelet designed by Aldo Cipullo, which was introduced in 1971 and offered for sale for a short period of time thereafter. In the spring of 2012, the Juste un Clou collection was re-launched, this time comprising both bracelets and other jewelry. Examples of the Juste un Clou Works are shown below:

32. The bracelets in Cartier’s Juste un Clou collection incorporate a distinctive design composed of a unique combination of elements that collectively create a particular trade dress that is characteristic of Cartier’s Juste un Clou collection (the “Juste un Clou Trade Dress”).

33. The Juste un Clou Trade Dress consists of a nail design that:

1. has a perfectly round head;
2. has a tubular body;
3. has grooves underneath the head;
4. ends in a point that is preceded by four flat surfaces; and
5. curves in a circular formation with a slight overlap of the nail’s head and point.

34. The Juste un Clou Trade Dress is also the subject of the following federal trademark registration owned by Cartier:

Mark	Reg. No.	Reg. Date	Registered Goods

	5,583,979	October 16, 2018	Jewelry
---	-----------	------------------	---------

35. This registration is valid, subsisting, and in full force and effect. A printout detailing the information for the Juste un Clou registration is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

36. Cartier has made widespread and exclusive use of the iconic Juste un Clou Trade Dress. Cartier has invested a considerable amount of time, effort, and money advertising and promoting its jewelry products bearing the Juste un Clou Trade Dress and has enjoyed enormous success selling such products in the United States and around the world. Products bearing the Juste un Clou Trade Dress have received extensive unsolicited media coverage due to their innovative and distinctive design.

37. By virtue of extensive sales, advertising, and promotion, the Juste un Clou Trade Dress has become instantly recognizable to the public as exclusively denoting Cartier and signaling the high quality of its products. As such, the Juste un Clou Trade Dress has obtained secondary meaning and is an enormously valuable asset of Cartier.

II. DEFENDANT'S UNLAWFUL ACTIVITIES

38. Defendant is in the business of offering for sale and selling jewelry. Defendant operates the Monica Jewelers jewelry store located in the Mall of Columbia in Columbia, Maryland.

39. On information and belief, Defendant has manufactured, advertised, offered for sale, sold, distributed, imported, and/or exported bracelets and rings bearing the LOVE Trade Dress, the LOVE Marks, and the Juste un Clou Trade Dress which were not manufactured, authorized, or approved by Cartier. Certain of these products also feature the CARTIER Mark.

40. In July 2022, Cartier's agent visited Defendant's jewelry store. Cartier's agent observed bracelets bearing the LOVE Trade Dress, the LOVE Marks, and the Juste un Clou Trade Dress. Certain of the bracelets also featured the CARTIER Mark. Defendant was offering these bracelets for sale for amounts ranging from $699 to $5,100. Examples of the Defendant's products are shown below:

41. Certain of the bracelets bearing the LOVE Trade Dress, LOVE Marks, and CARTIER Mark was also sold in a box bearing the CARTIER Mark, as depicted below:

42. Upon information and belief, Defendant knows, and at all relevant times knew, that the products it is selling are unlawful imitations of Cartier's jewelry products, and it advertises them as such. Indeed, Defendant informed Cartier's agent that its products are "LOVE inspired," and that the box with the CARTIER Mark was "CARTIER inspired." Further, Defendant told Cartier's agent that the $5,100 bracelets were made in-house for customers that want the real thing but want to save thousands of dollars, and that many customers have had the bracelets appraised as the original with no issues.

43. On information and belief, Defendant has sold jewelry pieces that bear imitations of the CARTIER Mark, the LOVE Trade Dress, the LOVE Marks, and the Juste un Clou Trade Dress to customers other than Cartier's agent.

44. Defendant is not related to or affiliated with Cartier in any way. Defendant has not sought or received a license or authorization from Cartier for any purpose whatsoever, including for the acts described herein.

45. Defendant's counterfeit and infringing jewelry products directly compete with Cartier's products.

46. Defendant's sale of counterfeit and infringing jewelry products unlawfully wrests from Cartier control over its reputation and, upon information and belief, is unjustly enriching Defendant.

47. Upon information and belief, Defendant's activity described herein is intentionally fraudulent, malicious, willful, and wanton.

48. Defendant's unauthorized acts as described herein have caused and will continue to cause irreparable damage to Cartier and its business and goodwill unless restrained by this Court.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
TRADEMARK COUNTERFEITING AND INFRINGEMENT OF REGISTERED
TRADEMARK AND TRADE DRESS IN VIOLATION OF 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1)

49. Cartier repeats and incorporates herein by reference each of the foregoing allegations.

50. The CARTIER Mark and the LOVE Marks are distinctive and of incalculable value, and are associated in the public mind with Cartier's goods and services of the highest quality.

51. Without Cartier's authorization or license, and, upon information and belief, with knowledge of Cartier's prior rights in the CARTIER Mark and LOVE Marks, Defendant has manufactured, advertised, offered for sale, sold, distributed, imported, and/or exported counterfeit CARTIER jewelry under and/or bearing the following CARTIER Mark and LOVE Marks, or marks highly similar thereto: the CARTIER word mark, U.S. Registration No. 411,239; the CARTIER word mark U.S. Registration No. 759,202; the stylized CARTIER word mark, U.S. Registration No. 411,240; the stylized CARTIER word mark, U.S. Registration No. 4,178,047; the trade dress in the screw head design, U.S. Registration No. 3,162,410; the trade dress in the LOVE bracelet, U.S. Registration No. 1,372,423; and the trade dress in the LOVE bracelet, U.S. Registration No. 3,776,794.

52. Upon information and belief, by virtue of Cartier's extensive and ongoing use and advertising of the CARTIER Mark and LOVE Marks, Defendant was on actual notice of Cartier's exclusive rights in the CARTIER Mark and LOVE Marks. In addition, Cartier's federal registrations put Defendant on constructive notice of Cartier's exclusive rights in the CARTIER Mark and LOVE Marks.

53. Defendant's manufacturing, advertisement, offering for sale, sale, distribution, import, and/or export of counterfeit CARTIER products under and/or bearing trademarks and trade dresses that are identical or highly similar to the CARTIER Mark and LOVE Marks is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception as to the source or sponsorship of Defendant's goods. As a result of Defendant's unauthorized use of Cartier's federally registered trademarks and trade dresses, and/or trademarks and trade dresses that are identical or highly similar to Cartier's federally registered trademarks and trade dresses, the public is likely to believe that Defendant's goods have been manufactured and/or approved by Cartier. Such use falsely represents Defendant as being legitimately connected with and/or authorized by Cartier, and places beyond Cartier's control its own reputation and ability to control the use of the CARTIER Mark and LOVE Marks and the quality of the products bearing those marks.

54. Defendant's infringement of the CARTIER Mark and LOVE Marks is willful, intended to reap the benefit of the goodwill of Cartier, and violates Section 32(1) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1).

55. Defendant's aforesaid conduct has caused, and unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause, Plaintiffs to sustain irreparable damage, loss, and injury, for which Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
UNFAIR COMPETITION IN VIOLATION OF 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)

56. Cartier repeats and incorporates herein by reference each of the foregoing allegations.

57. The CARTIER Mark, the LOVE Marks, and the LOVE Trade Dress are distinctive and of incalculable value, and are associated in the public mind with Cartier and goods and services of the highest quality.

58. Without Cartier's authorization or license and, upon information and belief, with knowledge of Cartier's prior rights in the CARTIER Mark, LOVE Marks, and LOVE Trade Dress, Defendant manufactured, advertised, offered for sale, sold, distributed, imported, and/or exported counterfeit and infringing products under and/or bearing the CARTIER Mark and the LOVE Trade Dress and LOVE Marks.

59. The Juste un Clou Trade Dress is used in commerce, is non-functional, is inherently distinctive, and has acquired secondary meaning as the indicator of Cartier as the exclusive source of products containing or incorporating such design.

60. Defendant has adopted the Juste un Clou Trade Dress and has, without Cartier's authorization or consent, manufactured, advertised, offered for sale, sold, distributed, imported, and/or exported jewelry designs that contain or incorporate the Juste un Clou Trade Dress or designs that are confusingly similar thereto.

61. Defendant's conduct is likely to cause confusion, cause mistake, and/or deceive as to the affiliation, connection, or association between Defendant and Cartier, and/or as to Cartier's sponsorship or approval of Defendant's goods, services, and/or commercial activities.

62. As a result of the foregoing, Defendant has falsely designated the origin of its products, all in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

63. Upon information and belief, Defendant's aforesaid conduct has been undertaken knowingly, willfully, and in bad faith.

64. Defendant's aforesaid conduct has caused, and unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause, Plaintiffs to sustain irreparable damage, loss, and injury, for which Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF:
DILUTION IN VIOLATION OF 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c)

65. Cartier repeats and incorporates herein by reference each of the foregoing allegations.

66. The CARTIER Mark is a distinctive, federally registered trademark. As a result of Cartier's extensive and exclusive use of the CARTIER Mark in connection with its products, the CARTIER Mark has become famous and is widely recognized among the consuming public as a designation of source of Cartier's goods. The CARTIER Mark became famous long before Defendant's infringing activities commenced.

67. Defendant's commercial use of marks identical to the CARTIER Mark for goods that are not manufactured or controlled by, affiliated with, or sponsored by Cartier has diluted and is continuing to dilute the distinctive quality of the CARTIER Mark by lessening the capacity of those marks to exclusively identify and distinguish Cartier and its goods, and by tarnishing them through association with Defendant's goods, which are of poor quality and workmanship.

68. Upon information and belief, the foregoing acts were done willfully and deliberately and with an intent to dilute the distinctiveness of the CARTIER Mark in violation of Section 43(c) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

69. Defendant's aforesaid conduct has caused, and unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause, Plaintiffs to sustain irreparable damage, loss and injury, for which Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF: COMMON LAW TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT

70. Cartier repeats and incorporates herein by reference each of the foregoing allegations.

71. The CARTIER Mark and the LOVE Marks are distinctive and of incalculable value, and are associated in the public mind with Cartier and goods and services of the highest quality.

72. Without Cartier's authorization or license and, upon information and belief, with knowledge of Cartier's prior rights in the CARTIER Mark and LOVE Marks Defendant manufactured, advertised, offered for sale, sold, distributed, imported, and/or exported counterfeit and infringing products under and/or bearing the CARTIER Mark and LOVE Marks intentionally and in bad faith.

73. Defendant's intentional and willful conduct is likely to cause confusion, cause mistake, and/or deceive as to the affiliation, connection, or association between Defendant and Cartier, and/or as to Cartier's sponsorship or approval of Defendant's goods, services, and/or commercial activities.

74. Defendant's aforesaid conduct constitutes common law trademark infringement under Maryland common law.

75. Defendant's aforesaid conduct has caused, and unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause, Plaintiffs to sustain irreparable damage, loss, and injury, for which Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF: COMMON LAW TRADE DRESS INFRINGEMENT

76. Cartier repeats and incorporates herein by reference each of the foregoing allegations.

77. The LOVE Trade Dress and the Juste un Clou Trade Dress are distinctive and of incalculable value, and are associated in the public mind with Cartier and goods and services of the highest quality.

78. Without Cartier's authorization or license and, upon information and belief, with knowledge of Cartier's prior rights in the LOVE Trade Dress and Juste un Clou Trade Dress, Defendant manufactured, advertised, offered for sale, sold, distributed, imported, and/or exported counterfeit and infringing products under and/or bearing the LOVE Trade Dress and Juste un Clou Trade Dress intentionally and in bad faith.

79. Defendant's intentional and willful conduct is likely to cause confusion, cause mistake, and/or deceive as to the affiliation, connection, or association between Defendant and Cartier, and/or as to Cartier's sponsorship or approval of Defendant's goods, services, and/or commercial activities.

80. Defendant's aforesaid conduct constitutes common law trade dress infringement under Maryland common law.

81. Defendant's aforesaid conduct has caused, and unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause, Plaintiffs to sustain irreparable damage, loss, and injury, for which Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF: COMMON LAW UNFAIR COMPETITION

82. Cartier repeats and incorporates herein by reference each of the foregoing allegations.

83. Cartier owns all rights in the CARTIER Mark, LOVE Mark, LOVE Trade Dress, and Juste un Clou Trade Dress.

84. Defendant is unfairly competing with Cartier by using the CARTIER Mark, LOVE Mark, LOVE Trade Dress, and Juste un Clou Trade Dress to create and sell counterfeit and infringing products with knowledge of Cartier's rights in the foregoing trademarks and trade dress.

85. Defendant's intentional and willful conduct is likely to cause confusion, cause mistake, and/or deceive as to the affiliation, connection, or association between Defendant and Cartier, and/or as to Cartier's sponsorship or approval of Defendant's goods, services, and/or commercial activities.

86. Defendant's aforesaid conduct constitutes common law unfair competition under Maryland common law.

87. Defendant's aforesaid conduct has caused, and unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause, Plaintiffs to sustain irreparable damage, loss, and injury, for which Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for judgment against Defendant as follows:

1. Permanently enjoining and restraining Defendant, its agents, servants, employees, successors, and assigns and all those in active concert or participation with them, from:

(a) Imitating, copying, or making unauthorized use of the CARTIER Mark, Love Trade Dress, Juste un Clou Trade Dress and LOVE Marks, including, without limitation, by manufacturing, reproducing, distributing, displaying, advertising, promoting, offering for sale, selling, importing, or exporting any products bearing the CARTIER Mark, Love Trade Dress, Juste un Clou Trade Dress and LOVE Marks or any other design that is confusingly similar to the Love Trade Dress, Juste un Clou Trade Dress and LOVE Marks;

(b) Using any false designation of origin or false description or performing any act that can or is likely to lead members of the trade or public to believe that Defendant is associated with Cartier or that any product manufactured, distributed, advertised, displayed, promoted, offered for sale, sold, imported, or exported by Defendant is in any manner associated or connected with Cartier, is a genuine product of Cartier, or is authorized, licensed, sponsored, or otherwise approved by Cartier;

(c) Engaging in any other activity constituting unfair competition with Cartier, or constituting an infringement of the CARTIER Mark, Love Trade Dress, Juste un Clou Trade Dress and LOVE Marks; and

(d) Assisting or authorizing any third party to engage in any of the actions prohibited by subparagraphs (a)-(c) above, inclusive.

2. Directing that Defendant turn over to Plaintiffs for impoundment and eventual destruction, without compensation to Defendant, all materials in its possession or control that violate the provisions of paragraphs 1(a)-(c) above, along with all articles by means of which such unauthorized copies may be reproduced.

3. Directing that Defendant, at its own expense, recall from any distributors, retailers, vendors, or others to whom it has distributed materials that violate the provisions of paragraph 1(a)-(c) above, and that Defendant deliver up to Plaintiffs for destruction all materials returned to them.

4. Directing that Defendant, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116(a), file with the Court and serve upon Plaintiffs, within thirty (30) days of the entry of injunction prayed for herein, a written report under oath or affirmed under penalty of perjury setting forth in detail the form and manner in which it has complied with the permanent injunction.

5. Granting Plaintiffs all damages sustained as a result of Defendant's unlawful activities described above, together with appropriate interest thereon and that such sums be trebled pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117.

6. Granting Plaintiffs all the gains, profits, savings, and advantages realized by Defendant from its unlawful actions described above pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117.

7. Granting Plaintiffs punitive damages.

8. Granting Plaintiffs their full costs, including, as part of such costs, reasonable attorneys' fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117.

9. Granting Plaintiffs both pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on each and every monetary award.

10. Granting Plaintiffs such other and further relief as the Court may consider equitable, just and proper.

Dated: October 19, 2022

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/ Eric M. Leppo
Eric M. Leppo (Bar No. 28525)
Semmes, Bowen & Semmes
25 South Charles Street, Suite 1400
Baltimore, Maryland 21201
Tel: 410-576-4718
Fax: 410-539-5223
eleppo@semmes.com

John P. Margiotta (pro hac vice application to be filed)
Kimberly B. Frumkin (pro hac vice application to be filed)
FROSS ZELNICK LEHRMAN & ZISSU, P.C.
151 West 42nd Street, 17th Floor
New York, NY 10036
Tel: (212) 813-5900
Email: jmargiotta@fzlz.com
kfrumkin@fzlz.com

Attorneys for Plaintiffs